3. Qualification for GS

3. 1. Invitations for GS are determined according to the following criteria:

A. Average rating of the twelve (12) monthly FIDE Standard Rating Lists starting from July 1st 2018 to June 1st 2019.

One hundred (100) players qualify by their average rating.

For the purpose of deciding the one hundred (100) qualifiers by rating, the average rating from the twelve (12) FIDE Standard Rating Lists from July 1st 2018 to June 1st 2019 is used. In case of equality, two decimals are taken into consideration. If the numbers are still equal then the total number of rated games in all twelve standard rating periods is decisive: the player with the bigger number of games qualifies.

In order to be eligible via Clause A, players should appear active in all twelve FIDE Standard Rating Lists from July 1st 2018 to June 1st 2019.

B. Women's World Champion as of June 1st 2019 – GM Ju Wenjun.

C. Junior U20 World Champion as of June 1st 2019 – GM Parham Maghsoodloo.

D. World Senior 50+ Champion as of June 1st 2019 – GM Karen Movsziszian.

Europe - 5
Asia - 3
Americas - 3
Africa - 1

G. One qualifier from the ACP Tour based on standings as of June 1st 2019.

H. Three (3) players nominated by the FIDE President.

If any player qualifies by two or more criteria, his/her place(s) from the lower listed criterium(-a) go(-es) to the next non-qualifying player of the respective criterium(-a).

3. 2. If any of the one hundred (100) players qualified by average rating withdraws or declines to participate, the average rating serves for the purpose as described in Article 3.1.A. If any of the seventeen (17) players qualified by Categories from B to G (Article 3.1.) withdraws or declines to participate, his/her place goes to the next non-qualifying player in the respective Category. If the next player is also not able to attend, for all further replacements the average rating serves for the purpose as described in Article 3.1.A.
